Lincrusta-Walton. The New Wall Decoration

RECENTLY there has been introduced into this country an English material for wall and ceiling decorations which in many respects is of surpassing excellence. In the accompanying illustration we show a combination of several patterns of this material, selected from a great variety of designs, each excellent. It gives all the effect of elaborate and elegant carving at moderate cost, admits of any color treatment which may be desired, and possesses marked hygienic advantages in being non-absorbent and impervious.

This material occupies a place peculiarly and exclusively its own. It cannot be said to be a substitute for wall-paper, for it is so different that a comparison between them is impossible. As a material it more nearly resembles embossed leather than anything else, but as a wall-covering, it may be used as a substitute for wood, plaster, or metal. It is a composition consisting chiefly of linseed-oil hardened by oxidation, spread on a back of stout canvas, and, while plastic, embossed by pressure, under dies engraved with the best designs obtainable. It is a good deal like stamped leather in its general character, and there is scarcely a limit to the variety of beautiful effects which can be of metals are secured, and with color the range of effects obtainable is unlimited. Variations of temperature which other building materials can bear do not affect it, dampness cannot penetrate it, of heat it is an excellent non-conductor, and it may be washed thoroughly without injury to the material itself. It is sufficiently elastic not to be marred by accident, and it may even be hammered with impunity. It neither warps nor cracks, and, being flexible, it may be carried around curved surfaces, or into angles, without joints. The material has been thoroughly tested in England and on the Continent, and has met all the requirements of a perfect wall-covering. It is controlled in this country by the secured with color, bronze, and gold in this material. It can be made to imitate carved wood so perfectly that panels of it may be held in position by wood-mouldings without showing any difference between them which the eye can detect. With bronze and gold perfect imitations ton Manuf'g Co., whose offices are at 41 Union Square, N.Y. Sheets illustrating the various designs thus far made have been prepared for the use of architects and decorators, and, with samples of the material itself, will be forwarded to any address upon application.

The American Factory is now in operation, and the material made here can be seen and ordered from the Company, at their offices, No. 41 UNION SQUARE, NEW YORK, or through their Agents in the Principal Cities in the Union.

(Copyright and Registered by R. H. BRAGDON, 1882.)

BRAGDON & FENETTI, Artists, 23 Union Square, NEW YORK, are the sole proprietors of this entirely new and wonderfully beautiful Art-work. Orders for the materials may be sent direct to the above, or to F. W. DEVOE & CO., C. T. RAYNOLDS & CO., or P. F. ULRICH, New York City. Boxes of uniform size, containing 30 bottles of colors and 1 large bottle of medium, with printed directions for use, are $5 each. A full Letter of Instruction, price $2, enables any one to do the work successfully without personal direction. Special palettes for "Lustra" are each $1. The colors may be used on any object or fabric without previous preparation or sizing. Designs for this and all other decorative work prepared to order at moderate charge.

Thorough instruction in fruit and flower painting, pictorial and decorative. The very finest specimens in New York may be seen at our studios. Visitors welcomed. Responsible Agents desired in other cities.

A WEEKLY PAPER,

Devoted to Art, Artists, and their Friends.

Published Every Saturday.

THE STUDIO contains a weekly epitome of Art News, Notes of Studio and Exhibition Work, Correspondence from Art centres both at home and abroad, and the interchange of opinions upon subjects of special interest to Artists, accompanied with reductions of pen-and-ink drawings.

The first numbers of THE STUDIO will be found to contain articles on "The Tariff Question," "Art Clubs," Letters from Paris and Washington. The first of a series of papers on "The Clever vs. Serious in Art," "Art as an Educator," and short Biographies of Henry C. Bispham and Benjamin West. These contributions are largely from well-known artists. Several important articles are now in press and in preparation for the coming numbers.

THE STUDIO IS THE ONLY WEEKLY PAPER DEVOTED TO ART ENTIRELY IN NEW YORK. Specimen copies on receipt of 10 cts. (in stamps). Subscription Rates, $3 per Year.

We keep everything that should be found in a large first-class carpet store, and as to what we charge for our goods would say that we do not to-day advertise meaningless prices that may not prevail tomorrow, and confront the would-be purchaser with the intelligence that "they are all closed out." It has been said the American people pay for being humbugged, which may be true, but our experience is they only pay once. Every business house with large stocks naturally accumulate broken or odd lots of goods, on the original stock of which large profits have been realized, and consequently are freely sold at a sacrifice to close them out, and we are no exception to this rule, for such goods do not increase in value by remaining on our shelves. A great many people are looking for bargains in such goods and often get them, but frequently their mania for bargains leads them to become the victims of unscrupulous store-keepers, who offer goods at what they term bargains, when they are really dear at prices advertised. There is also a larger proportion of our people who desire new designs in desirable and durable goods at a fair and honest price. To such we beg to state that these are the goods we always try to fill our shelves with, and when we make a mistake in doing this, we mark them down at once; thus we make bargains for those who desire excellent goods at low prices and no humbug, and likewise regular goods at square honest prices for those who wish elegant goods and no misrepresentation. We do not sell goods on the so-called instalment plan, thereby adding one hundred per cent to an honest retail price of goods, but to reliable and responsible parties we will grant if desired, a reasonable term of credit, and the best of us find it convenient at times to "pay later." Our location is central and easily reached, and if you will call we will give you our best attention, and if we cannot please you we shall not at least have compromised our business integrity by advertising at one price with the intention of selling you at another if we can, and a business experience of fifty-five years in this city ought to teach us how far such things will pay.
